Gryphon Financial Partners Welcomes New Lead Advisor Focused on High Net Worth Business Owners and Families

"Gryphon is the perfect firm for me to truly serve as a fiduciary for clients and provide them with independent, unbiased advice and solutions." – TJ Davis, CFP®

Columbus, OH – Gryphon Financial Partners is proud to announce the addition of TJ Davis, CFP® as Director, GFP Wealth Management bringing with him a deep commitment to fiduciary service, a passion for family-centered advising, and a wealth of experience working with business owners and multigenerational families.

"Family is very important to me, and the culture at Gryphon is a family," Davis shared. "Gryphon is the perfect firm for me to truly serve as a fiduciary for clients and provide them with independent, unbiased advice and solutions."

With a client base primarily made up of current and former business owners, Davis specializes in helping families navigate the transition and succession planning of their often times most significant financial asset — their business.

"We are thrilled to welcome TJ whose values and experience so closely align with Gryphon's mission of Making People's Lives Better," said Joel Guth, Founder and CEO of Gryphon Financial Partners. "His dedication to helping business owners and families adds incredible depth to our team."
